

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The Week's Doings at the National Capital.

THE GRANT RELICS.

The Grant relic mania will soon be taken charge of by the National Museum and stored away for exhibition. The exhibit case will be made of heavy French plate glass, hand-sawn and stained wood, and a careful watch will be kept over it.

CARRYING THE MAIL.

The Second Assistant Postmaster-General has completed his general arrangement inviting proposals for carrying the mails on all star and standard routes. The routes are in Alaska, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, from July 1, 1887, to June 30, 1891. The aggregate number of star and standard routes in these States is 3,674.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

The Acting Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular calling the attention of all officers and employees of the Treasury Department to the President's order of July 14, 1886, warning Federal collectors, inspectors, and other officers of the Department, and commanding them to the thoughtful attention of all Postmasters and other Department officers.

AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE TARIFF.

The following is a true, fairly illustrated, and accurate representation of the tariff management that prevails in the Departments of the Government. Originally the name of the County-seat of Burlington, Kan., was spelled Atwood, with two "t's." Some time ago the Postmaster at that place suggested that one "t" had better be dropped, and the Department officials authorized the change. But the Postmaster had been recommended to serve in a town with two "t's" in its name, and in order to hold his position when it only had one he had to have a new commission and file a new bond.

OUR FINANCES.

The total of the public debt remaining unpaid is $1,737,385,371. It is from this that the cash in the Treasury and other available assets are deducted. The total cash in the Treasury is $1,737,385,371. The debt remaining unpaid is $1,737,385,371. The total cash in the Treasury is $1,737,385,371.

PAYING MR. IRVING'S DEBT.

It would make over more peaceful the rest of Washington Irving's home if they could get the clearing with the people of this country are putting their hands in their pockets and paying over and over again, the debt of three cents which has been against Mr. Irving on the books of the Treasury since 1835. The fact of the indebtedness was made known by the recent publication of balances due to and from Mr. Irving. The first of these was a lady, a relative of Mr. Irving, in Kittingburg, Pa. Her indebtedness of three cents was accepted to balance the account. It was duly entered in the big ledger, and a receipt was sent to her. The lady, however, continued to come in. The two following have also come in:

THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Nominations by All Parties and Notes of the Campaign.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS.

The Illinois Republican State Convention met at Springfield Sept. 1, and after a long session declared against non-resident aliens becoming land owners; denounced free trade as a move to impoverish free labor by putting it in competition with the productions of overpaid labor in the Old World; and arraigned the Administration for failing to redeem its promises. John R. Tanner, of Clay County, was nominated for Governor; John M. Oliver, of Cook County, for Lieutenant Governor; and John R. Tanner, of Clay County, was nominated for Governor.

MISSOURI REPUBLICANS.

The State Convention met at Sedalia. The question of submitting a prohibition amendment to the people was the leading issue. The amendment was adopted, and the platform was adopted. The platform was adopted, and the platform was adopted.

CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATS.

The State Convention met at San Francisco. The platform was adopted, and the platform was adopted. The platform was adopted, and the platform was adopted.

INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

IOWA'S WONDER.

An Artesian Well That Spouts 5,000,000 Gallons of Water. Iowa comes to the front with a remarkable freak of nature. At Belle Plaine an artesian well four inches in diameter burst when the depth of 180 feet had been reached in boring, and instantly a volume of water was forced to the air to the distance of several hundred feet. This gradually increased in size until a stream of water fully 16 inches in diameter was formed, and the upward force of this stream, as the water burst, was equal to the force of powder or dynamite. The water in huge volume spouted high in the air, and the supply seemed inexhaustible. Two gigantic rivers were formed by this phenomenal water burst, which ran through the town at the rate of 12 miles an hour, carrying everything before them. Houses and lives were threatened, and the citizens were appalled at their impending danger. Finding it impossible to divert the damaging flow an attempt was made to insert 16-inch boiler iron tubes into the well, but these were instantly blown up by the force of the water. Finding this plan useless the terrified people attempted to fill up the aperture through which this terrible geyser was spouting its deluge. Fifteen cart-loads of stone were dumped into the well, but these were forced out as though propelled by the force of giant powder. Bags of sand were then hastily constructed and cast into the well, but these, too, were hurled into the air. The Chicago & North Western Railroad was called upon for assistance and instantly sent a large gang of men to the rescue. The bridge gang of the County, also called upon, but up to last night no attempt had been made to divert the water. The rushing rivers formed by it were washing the channel it had made deeper and wider, while the basin formed by this immense volume of water was spreading over the low lands in the vicinity.
